

please remove the morse code requirment soon. morse code while quaint is no more usefull than learning to program z-80 assembly language for a computer degree. i cannot remember hearing of one emergency communication during the florida hurricanes involving morse code. isnt that proof enough?